

Windows WSL installation

Step 1: WSL Installation: Wsl –install

Step 2: Enable Virtual machine: wsl –install –no-distribution

Step 3: Check virtualisation:

1. press ctrl+shift+esc
2. Go to performance tab
3. Click CPU
4. Check virtualisation if enabled fine else follow step 4

Step 4: Enable Virtualisation in BIOS:

1. restart pc
2. Press F2/F10/DEL/ESC depending on which one provides BIOS settings for your pc
3. In Bios settings look for one of these (Intel VT-x / Intel Virtualisation technology / SVM Mode(AMD)) and enable it

Step 5: Installing linux distribution(ubuntu): wsl –install -d Ubuntu

Cheat sheet for linux commands

Command	Syntax	Usage
pwd	<code>pwd</code>	Shows the current working directory.
ls	<code>ls</code>	Lists files and folders in the current directory.
cd	<code>cd folder_name</code>	Changes directory to the specified folder.
cd ..	<code>cd ..</code>	Moves one directory back (parent folder).
mkdir	<code>mkdir dir_name</code>	Creates a new directory.
rmdir	<code>rmdir dir_name</code>	Deletes an empty directory.
touch	<code>touch file_name.format</code>	Creates a new empty file.
rm	<code>rm file_name.format</code>	Deletes a file.
cp	<code>cp first.txt sec.txt</code>	Copies content of <code>first.txt</code> to <code>sec.txt</code> . Overwrites if it exists.
mv (rename)	<code>mv oldname.txt newname.txt</code>	Renames a file.
mv (move)	<code>mv file.txt docs/</code>	Moves a file to another directory.
cat	<code>cat file.txt</code>	Displays the content of a file.
head	<code>head file.txt</code>	Shows the first 10 lines of a file.
head -n	<code>head -n 5 file.txt</code>	Shows the first n lines of a file.
tail	<code>tail file.txt</code>	Shows the last 10 lines of a file.
tail -n	<code>tail -n 5 file.txt</code>	Shows the last n lines of a file.
grep	<code>grep hello file.txt</code>	Searches for the word hello inside the file.
grep -i	<code>grep -i hello file.txt</code>	Searches ignoring case differences.

wc	<code>wc file.txt</code>	Shows number of lines, words, and bytes.
wc -l	<code>wc -l file.txt</code>	Counts the number of lines.
wc -w	<code>wc -w file.txt</code>	Counts the number of words.
wc -c	<code>wc -c file.txt</code>	Counts bytes in the file.
wc -m	<code>wc -m file.txt</code>	Counts characters in the file.
find	<code>find . -name file.txt</code>	Searches for a specific file in the current directory and subdirectories.
find (extension)	<code>find . -name "*.txt"</code>	Finds all <code>.txt</code> files.
clear	<code>clear</code>	Clears the terminal screen.
man	<code>man command_name</code>	Shows manual/help page for a command.
echo (overwrite)	<code>echo "text" > file.txt</code>	Writes text to a file and overwrites existing content.
echo (append)	<code>echo "text" >> file.txt</code>	Adds text to the end of the file.
history	<code>history</code>	Displays previously executed commands.
whoami	<code>whoami</code>	Shows the current logged-in user.